

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We have much less intruptions in our lives since we signed up to be on the list. We were receiving 2 to 4 phone calls per week, now we maybe get 1 every 2 to 3 months. I think this is an important law that has improved my life and should not be modified.

Thank you,

Tom McMurry